Boccherini, Moreno-Torroba, Esplá and Giménez y Bellido... Spain means more than just flamenco. Sizzling heat, brilliant colours, full-bodied wine, a laid-back Mediterranean lifestyle, castanets and naturally, guitars. On their fourth CD the Heinrich Albert Duo effortlessly lure the listener to the Iberian peninsula – and they clearly enjoy the experience immensely.

Caramba

Francisco Tárrega undoubtedly never thought for one moment that his "Memories of the Alhambra" would become a "hit" even among composers of pop music. As if from nowhere, guitarist Julio Sagreras conjures up a second part – and the work suddenly sounds completely new, as if tailor-made for the Heinrich Albert Duo.

Paella

Thanks to Isaac Albéniz we can get to know Cordoba, Granada, Seville and also Catalonia. Spain's No. 1 impressionist painted wonderful cityscapes with his music. Joaquin Turina, whose proximity to French impressionism is in no doubt, entices us to Seville... The nonchalance with which Joachim Schrader and Jan Erler adapt the scores of well-known and lesser-known works for guitar duo, and interpret virtuosically original compositions for two guitars, never fails to fascinate.

Fiesta

"This is guitar music at its very best," according to the German music magazine Crescendo.

"A hugely enjoyable disc. Full marks to Schrader and Erler for rescuing this music from undeserved obscurity and to MDG for providing an excellent recording ... Frankly I haven't enjoyed a disc this much in ages and I urge you to audition it at once." (Musicweb-international)

"Thank you! This is a really great CD." (diverdi)
